

Student Notice

Department of Computer Application in association with Vistas Real English World is conducting a one day English Orientation Program in the Computer Lab on 21st July, 2018 at 11:00 AM.

The subject of the program is "Communication & Personality Development"

The program aim is to introduce participants to new methodologies for improving their communication skills and personality.